Basic Needs of Children*

All children have certain basic needs as well as needs that are specific to their age and stage of development. The basic needs of children are . . .

Physical

- Food
- Warmth
- Shelter

Mental

- Power—to make choices and follow plans

Emotional

- A sense of belonging
- Approval and recognition
- Expressions of unconditional love and acceptance
- Freedom within defined boundaries
- Humor—a chance to laugh

Spiritual

- An all-knowing, loving, caring God
- Forgiveness of wrongs and a chance to start over
- Assurance of acceptance with God
- Experience in prayer, answers to prayer
- A chance to grow in grace and in the knowledge of God

The Beginner Child

In the Seventh-day Adventist Church the GraceLink curriculum for beginners targets children ages birth through 2 years. However, both the beginner and the kindergarten materials are adaptable to 3-year-olds.

A general rule applying to the beginner child is: seat children so their feet easily touch the ground. For children under 18 months use walkers (without wheels).

To better understand beginner children, ages birth through 2 years, it is helpful to note characteristics of their growth and development.

Physical

- Vary greatly in their physical development
- Are growing rapidly
- Tire easily
- Cannot sit still for long

Mental

- Have an attention span of only one or two minutes
- Learn by active involvement and imitation rather than by instruction
- Learn best one ministep at a time
- Focus attention on what they see and/or touch

Emotional

- Are extremely egocentric—centered in themselves
- Fear separation from parents
- Cry easily; one crying child sets other children crying
- Express their needs by crying. The crying usually stops when needs are met.
- Become attached to adults who show love and acceptance of them

Spiritual

- Sense attitudes of respect, joy, and anticipation in connection with church, the Bible, and Jesus
- Can identify pictures of Jesus and lip His name
- Will fold hands (briefly) for the blessing before meals and kneel (again briefly) for prayer

Developmental Needs

In addition to the basic needs listed earlier, 2-year-olds need to experience:

- Power—to have a chance to manipulate objects, events, people
- Freedom—to make choices, to interact in learning situations, to sometimes move about at will
- Independence—to do some things unaided
- Security—to feel safe

A Letter to Parents

Dear Parents,

Change is coming!

Starting the first quarter of 2015 the GraceLink curriculum is getting a major update. Here's what you can expect:

- Your child can study the lesson first at home and then review it on Sabbath. We've looked at study patterns and recognize that this method continues to work well around the world.
- Your child will be encouraged to remember scriptures as they build their relationship with God. This will be done by learning the memory verse, which they will be given an opportunity to recite in Sabbath School.
- Your child will learn to enjoy sharing God's love. An opportunity will be provided for them to express in Sabbath School their experiences in sharing with others.

But as much as we're updating, we know the value of what has worked so far. We're still going to have child-friendly and age-appropriate graphics, a message for each lesson, creative activities that apply to all learning styles, and an active and interactive approach to conducting Sabbath School.

We pray that all the updates and the continuing features will provide support as your young ones continue to grow in Jesus and in His grace.

E-mail us at www.gracelink.net.

With Affection, The Editors

Jesus Heals A Little Girl

Memory Verse:

"I pray . . . that your health is good." ³ JOHN 2, ICB.

The Message:

We can care for others.

Parents:

By the end of the month you can help your child
Know that we serve God when we are kind to people who are sick or sad.

Feel sympathy for those who are sick.

Respond by cheering up and praying for sick people.

*Have you ever been really sick? Jesus cares when you are sick.
The Bible tells about a time Jesus made a sick girl well.*

See Mrs. Jairus.
(Point to woman.) Boohoo!
(Pretend to cry.) See Mrs. Jairus. (Point to woman.) She is sad.
See Mr. Jairus. (Point to Jairus.) He is sad too. They are worried. Their daughter is very sick.

“Who can help her?” asks Mrs.
Jairus.
“We must get help or she will die.”

“Jesus can help,” says
Mr. Jairus.
“I will ask Jesus to help her.”

See Jesus. (Point to Jesus.) Everyone wants to be with Jesus. Jesus smiles at the people. He smiles at the children. (Point to the children.) Jesus sees Mr. Jairus coming through the crowd. (Point to Jairus.) Jesus smiles at him, too.

Jesus, please come to my house,” Mr. Jairus begs. (Point to Jairus.)
“Please come and heal my little girl. She is very sick.”

Shh! The people stop talking. Shh!
The people listen.
(Cup hand to ear.)
Will Jesus go?

A sick woman needs Jesus.

(Point to the woman trying to touch Jesus' clothing.) The sick woman touches His coat.

Jesus stops to find out who touched Him. The woman comes and tells Him that she did. Jesus tells her that she has been healed and that she should go in peace.

Poor Jairus! He just waits. And waits.
And waits.

Mr. Jairus, sir, come home,” his servant says. (Point to the servant.) “Do not bother Jesus anymore,” the man whispers. (Whisper.) “Your little girl is dead.”

(Loudly, urgently.) “Wait!” says Jesus.
“Just believe, and she will be all right.
I am coming with
you. Don’t cry.
Only believe.”

Don't cry," Jesus says to Mr. Jairus. "Only believe."

Jesus reaches Jairus' house. "Don't cry, Mother! I will help.
I will help your daughter."

Shh! (Whisper.)
What will Jesus do?

Speak loudly; take child's hand.)

"Little child, get up," Jesus says. *(Pull your child to sitting position.
Hug him or her.)*

Mrs. Jairus smiles.
Mr. Jairus smiles too.
"Thank You, Jesus!"
they say.

Jesus smiles and says, "Give her something to eat."

Jesus cares if we're happy or sad, sick or well. We can help

Jesus care for others by being kind and loving.

Do & Say

Make extra food for supper and, with your child, share some with a sick neighbor.

Write the memory verse on a card and decorate it. Help your child give it to someone who is ill.

Have your child blow bubbles for someone who is sad. Have your child give that person a hug.

Study these suggestions for something to do each day with your child. Select those that are appropriate for your child's developmental stage and repeat them often.

Line up cushions close together and you and your child squeeze through. Talk about Jesus and Jairus squeezing through the crowd on their way to Jairus' house.

At bathtime, as hands, feet, mouth, and ears are washed, talk about ways children can use those body parts to help others.

Draw a happy face on a piece of cardboard and have your child help you decorate it. Attach a string for hanging. Write "Jesus loves you." on it and send it to a children's hospital or nursing home.

In the morning or after naptime, say, "Little girl/boy, get up!" Have them jump up, then tell them the story of Jesus and Jairus' daughter.

As you make the bed, sing together, "I'm a little helper."
(See page 63.)

Let your child share a favorite blanket or toy stuffed animal with someone who is sad or hurt.

Play "hospital" with your child. Take turns being the sick person and the doctor or nurse.

Use your "Little Girl's Bed" craft from Sabbath School to tell the story of Jairus and Jesus.

Record your child singing Sabbath School songs and send them to a shut-in or faraway grandparents who may be missing their family.

Talk about things that help you feel better when you get hurt. How can you help others feel better? Sing "Don't Cry, Little Baby" when someone is sad or hurt. (See page 62.)

Make cookies with a heart-shaped cookie cutter. Write out the memory verse and attach it. With your child, give them to friends and family.

Decorate cups or cans of food with paper and fabric to be Jesus, Jairus, a few disciples, and Jairus' daughter. Tell the story of Jesus and Jairus.

The Good Shepherd

Memory Verse:

"Be happy with me . . . I found my . . . sheep!" LUKE 15:6, ICB.

The Message:

Jesus cares for you and me.

Parents:

By the end of the month you can help your child

Know that Jesus loves them as the shepherd loved his sheep.

Feel safe because Jesus cares for them.

Respond by saying thank You to Jesus.

*Baa! says the woolly lamb. Woolly Lamb wants his mother.
Baa-baa! Don't worry, little lamb. The shepherd boy will help you.*

Wake up, shepherd!

It's time to get up.
(Point to the shepherd, then the sheep.)

Wake up, sheep!
It's time to nibble the thick, green grass.

Wake up, Woolly Lamb! (Point to the black lamb.) It's time for breakfast. Baa-baa!

Don't move,
fluffy sheep.
Don't move, Woolly Lamb. It's time for the shepherd to count the sheep.

(Touch child's nose for each count.) 1-2-3-4-5. The shepherd is counting the sheep. 21-22-23-24. Are all the sheep safe? 97-98-99-100!
Yea! (Clap hands.)

All the sheep are counted. All the sheep are safe.

The sun is high in the sky. The sun feels hot. The sheep feel thirsty. Woolly Lamb stays close to mother sheep.

Sniff-sniff! (Pretend to sniff.) The sheep smell water.

Let's run to the water. (Run to the sink; drink water.)

Walking,
walking.

The sheep are tired of walking. "Let's stay here for a while,"
the shepherd says.

But big, ugly flies
buzz about the sheep.
(Point to the flies.)

Buzz-buzz! (Tickle your child.)

Flies buzz Woolly Lamb's eyes. Flies
buzz Woolly Lamb's nose. Woolly Lamb stamps his feet.
(Stamp feet.) All the sheep stamp at the flies.

Don't move,
fluffy sheep, don't move! The shepherd gives medicine to each sheep. (Touch child's face.) The shepherd gives medicine and counts (touch child's nose and count) 97-98-99.

Uh-oh! Woolly
Lamb is not here.
Where is Woolly
Lamb?

Woolly Lamb, where are you?” (Child hides face with tissue.)

Is Woolly Lamb in the pool? (Point.) No, he is not there. (Shake head.) Is he near the rocks? (Point.) No, not there.

Where is Woolly
Lamb? Shh! Listen.
(Your child says, “Baa!”)

Oh, there you are!
(Remove tissue; hug child.)

Baa-baa! Woolly
Lamb is safe.

*Thank you, shepherd,
for finding him.*

*Thank you, shepherd,
for bringing him back.*

*Thank You, Jesus,
for loving our own little lamb. (Hug child.
Spin with child around the room.)*

You and your child play making different animal sounds. Thank God for animals.

Make up a little song about the shepherd and the sheep or, with your child, sing one that you learned in Sabbath School.

Look for things with different textures. With your child, touch them and talk about how different things feel. Look for a texture that feels like sheep's wool.

Do & Say

Study these suggestions for something to do each day with your child. Select those that are appropriate for your child's developmental stage and repeat them often.

Play hide-and-seek with your child. Hug him/her when you find him/her. Then sing the memory verse song. (See page 42.)

Put in a drawer or in a box things related to the lesson (cotton or toy sheep, some food, water in a plastic bottle). Use them to tell the Bible story to your child.

Put some food for birds on a bird feeder, or let your child help you feed some animals at the park.

Tell the lost sheep story while playing "Follow the Leader." Crawl under the table, climb "mountains" (pillows), and so on.

Make a trail with paper streamers. Have your child find his/her way to the "lost sheep" by following the streamers. Sing "The Good Shepherd." (See page 63.)

With your child, make an edible sheepfold and sheep. Make the sheepfold with bread, cookies, or fruit pieces. Make sheep out of banana pieces or some other fruit covered with coconut.

Sing a song or make one up about mother sheep and other animals taking care of their babies.

Along with your child, using blocks, build a sheepfold for the sheep.

Hide a toy stuffed animal. You and your child can look for it and sing the memory verse song when you find it. (See page 42.)

Show your child how to model some sheep with play dough or make cookies with the shape of sheep or a shepherd's staff.

Have your child say thank You to Jesus for giving them a mommy and/or daddy to take care of them.

Play a call-and-respond game. Parent calls: "Little lamb, little lamb, where are you?" Child answers with animal sound. (Repeat with other animals.)

Memory Verse for Lesson 2

Be Happy With Me, I Found My Sheep

Clap each time you sing the words “found my sheep” to the tune of “I’m So Small”
(Little Voices Praise Him, No. 96). (See music below.)

Be happy with me, I found my sheep,
Be happy with me, I found my sheep,
Be happy with me, I found my sheep.
That is found in Luke 15, verse 6.

Baby Jesus Is Born

Memory Verse:

"I love you, Lord." PSALM 18:1, NIV.

The Message:

We love Jesus.

Parents:

By the end of the month you can help your child

Know that we worship Jesus.

Feel love for Jesus as a baby.

Respond by worshipping Jesus.

See the mother with her new baby. New babies are so special.

See Joseph and Mary. They have traveled a long way. They want to rest.

"I'm sorry," says the man (point to the innkeeper), "all my rooms are full."

"But we have come a long way," Joseph says. (Point to Joseph, then Mary.) "And my wife will soon have a baby."

"Well, you could stay in the barn," answers the kind man. "I have some animals there, but it's warm and dry."

See the animals.
(Point to and name the animals.)

See the manger.
(Point to the manger.)
The hay in the manger is soft. It will make a nice bed for a baby.

The barn will be a good place to stay for a while.

After a while, Baby
Jesus was born.

Let's put our baby on the soft hay in the manger," says Joseph. "You should rest a while." (Point to Joseph, then to Mary.)

Mother Mary looks at her new baby boy. She touches His curly, dark hair and His tiny ears. (Touch your child's hair and an ear.) She loves him so much!

"Come," says Joseph. "Come and rest now."

Some shepherds watch their sheep on a nearby hillside. (Point to shepherds, then sheep.) They have heard that Jesus will come to earth. When will He come? they wonder. Will He come soon? God's Word says He will.

The shepherds see a bright, shining star. (Point to the star.)

Where did the star come from? they wonder.

Suddenly an angel appears.

“Do not be afraid,” says the angel. (Point to the angel.) “I bring you good news. Jesus the Saviour has been born. You will find Him in the city. Look for a baby lying in a manger.”

Many more angels come. So many angels!
(Point to the angels.)

The angels sing a beautiful song. Their song fills the air.

Glory to God
in the highest.
And on earth
peace to everyone.

“We must go,” the shepherds say to one another. “We must go to the city and look for this baby.”

Thank You, God,” the shepherds pray. “Thank You for sending Your Son to this earth. Thank You for sending Jesus to be our Saviour. We will tell everyone we meet about Him.”

*We can thank God too. (Pray a simple prayer, such as the following.) Thank You, God, for sending Jesus
to love us, to save us, and to care for us. We love Him, and we love You, too.*

Do & Say

Roll both ends of a piece of paper together to look like a scroll. Decorate it and write “Follow the star. A Saviour has been born.” Talk to your child about the shepherds.

Make paper or elastic headbands for the family. Attach paper or felt animal ears—cow, donkey, sheep, etc. Sing “Away in a Manger.”

Allow your child to ride on a rocking horse. Talk to him/her about Mary and Joseph’s journey to Bethlehem.

Arrange stuffed toy animals in a corner. Count them and talk to your child about Jesus’ birth.

Provide a “donkey ride” for your older toddler. Talk to him or her about Mary and Joseph’s journey to Bethlehem.

Shine a flashlight on the ceiling of a darkened room. Show your child how to follow the “star” to find Baby Jesus.

Wrap up a baby doll in strips of cloth. Sing a song about Baby Jesus. Thank God for Jesus.

Roll out cookie dough and use a star-shaped cookie cutter. Have your child help you decorate with yellow icing and sprinkles.

Stuff a white sock with cloth scraps and glue cotton balls to it. Draw a sheep's face and ears. Talk to your child about the shepherds who worshipped Jesus.

Buy plaster ornaments of the Nativity scene, stars, or shepherds, and, with your child, paint them with finger paints.

Visit a Nativity scene and look at the straw. Have your child touch it if possible.

Use blocks or pillows to make a stable. Place toy animals inside it. Sing "Away in a Manger."

Make a manger by shredding newspaper and putting it in a box. Use a doll for Baby Jesus. Sing "Away in a Manger."

Make a cardboard crown and decorate it. Write "Jesus Is King" on the front.

Have a party for Jesus. Sing songs of praise to Him. Talk about a gift your child might give to Jesus.

Pianist: This lilting lullaby needs to flow along smoothly. Do not play it too slowly.

Leader: Once the children have learned the song, let them rock little dolls in their arms. The song is useful in illustrations of helpfulness, kindness, and family relations. It is a piece that the little ones can relate to easily, and it will bring out their own little parental instincts. Mothers will find it useful for many everyday circumstances.
