Bible Study Guide Overview

- Lesson 1 teaches that little children can treat others as God treats them.
- In Lesson 2 we learn more about worshipping our Creator.
- Lesson 3 reminds us that Jesus loves us.

To the leader/teacher . . .

These guides were developed to:

- Introduce the lesson on Sabbath. The child then reviews and applies the principles studied with the help of their parents and Bible study guides during the week. In this way, the lessons learned in Sabbath School become a vital part of the child's growing faith experience. Memory verses, which are also learned in Sabbath School, are reviewed and reinforced during the following week, connected in the child's mind with the interesting activities they have already experienced.
- Focus the entire Sabbath School time on one message. These messages each relate to one of the four dynamics of a growing faith experience: grace (God loves me), worship (I love God), community (we love each other), and service (God loves you, too).
- Reach each child in the way he or she learns best. By following the natural learning cycle on which these outlines were based, you will also connect students with "the message" for the week in a way that will capture each one's attention and imagination.

- Give children active learning experiences so they can more readily internalize the truths being presented. These experiences are followed by debriefing sessions in which you ask questions that lead the children to reflect on what they experienced, interpret the experience, and apply that information to their lives.
- Involve the adult Sabbath School staff in new and flexible ways. A very small Sabbath School can be managed by one adult. A larger Sabbath School can be managed by one leader/teacher with other adult volunteers to facilitate the small group interaction. This gives small group facilitators a maximum involvement with the students and their learning experience while requiring a minimum of preparation on the facilitator's part.

A creative alternative is to enlist leaders/teachers with different personal learning styles to lead different segments of the program.

(Note: The Getting Started section is the time-honored “business” of Sabbath School and may be used at any point during the lesson; however, it is recommended that you begin with Arrival Activities, even while some children are still arriving.)

To use this guide . . .

Try to follow the natural learning cycle outlined, but adapt activities as necessary to make the program work in your particular situation.

About Materials

As you follow the learning sequence outlined in each lesson, you may want to adapt activities for use in your particular situation, and this may require a change in the need for materials.

Look ahead at the Program Overview for each month's program so you can be prepared with the materials suggested. Before the quarter begins, obtain regularly used supplies.

Basic Needs of Children*

All children have certain basic needs as well as needs that are specific to their age and stage of development.

The basic needs of children are . . .

Physical

- Food
- Warmth
- Shelter

Mental

- Power—to make choices and follow plans

Emotional

- A sense of belonging
- Approval and recognition
- Expressions of unconditional love and acceptance

- Freedom within defined boundaries
- Humor—a chance to laugh

Spiritual

- An all-knowing, loving, caring God
- Forgiveness of wrongs and a chance to start over
- Assurance of acceptance with God
- Experience in prayer, answers to prayer
- A chance to grow in grace and in the knowledge of God

Developmental Needs

In addition to the basic needs listed earlier, 2-year-olds need to experience:

- Power—to have a chance to manipulate objects, events, people
- Freedom—to make choices, to interact in learning situations, to sometimes move about at will
- Independence—to do some things unaided
- Security—to feel safe

The Beginner Child

In the Seventh-day Adventist Church the GraceLink curriculum for beginners targets children ages birth through 2 years. However, both the Beginner and the Kindergarten materials are adaptable to 3-year-olds.

A general rule applying to the beginner child is: seat children so their feet easily touch the ground. For children under 18 months use walkers (without wheels).

To better understand beginner children, ages birth through 2 years, it is helpful to note characteristics of their growth and development.

Physical

- Vary greatly in their physical development
- Are growing rapidly
- Tire easily
- Cannot sit still for long
- Fear separation from parents
- Cry easily; one crying child sets other children crying
- Express their needs by crying. The crying usually stops when the child's needs are met.
- Become attached to adults who show love and acceptance of them

Mental

- Have an attention span of only one or two minutes
- Learn by active involvement and imitation rather than by instruction
- Learn best one ministeep at a time
- Focus attention on what they see and/or touch

Emotional

- Are extremely egocentric—centered in themselves

Spiritual

- Sense attitudes of respect, joy, and anticipation in connection with church, the Bible, and Jesus
- Can identify pictures of Jesus and lisp His name
- Will fold hands (briefly) for the blessing before meals and kneel (again briefly) for prayer

LESSON

Little David, the Shepherd Boy

COMMUNITY

We treat each other like God treats us.

References

1 Samuel 16:7, 11, 12; 17:34, 35; Patriarchs and Prophets, pp. 637-644.

Memory Verse

"Children, obey your parents in everything" (Colossians 3:20, NIV).

Objectives

The children will:

Know that they are part of a family.

Feel loved by their family.

Respond by being helpful and obedient.

The Message

I am part of a family.

Getting Ready to Teach

The Bible Lesson at a Glance

David comes from a large family. It is his responsibility to look after his father's sheep. Although he is only a boy, he is brave and does his job well.

This is a lesson about community.

David is a faithful and loyal shepherd. He takes special care of the sheep entrusted to his care. He is obedient and loving to his father. David demonstrates his character in the way he behaves to his family. We also are called to be loving and obedient to our family.

Teacher Enrichment

"David, in the freshness of boyhood, kept watch of his flocks as they grazed on the hills surrounding Bethlehem. The simple shepherd boy sang the songs of his own composing, and the music of his harp made a sweet accompaniment to the melody of his fresh young voice. The Lord had chosen David, and was preparing him, in his solitary life with his flocks, for the work He designed to commit to his trust in after years" (Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 637).

"David had proved himself brave and faithful in the humble office of a shepherd. . . . As humble and modest as before his anointing, the shepherd boy returned to the hills and watched and guarded his flocks as tenderly as ever" (Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 641).

ONE

Room Decorations

The room decorations are designed for the three lessons for the quarter. Some things may be added or removed as appropriate for the monthly story. Remember to keep things very simple for children of this age. A few large, well chosen decorations are better for very young children.

Create a Bible-times scene. Place green and brown fabric or paper on the floor to represent grass and soil. Place the house (from the previous quarter) and/or a small tent there. Off to the side, place as many toy sheep as possible in the field, along with rocks, trees, stream, and shepherd's cloak and staff. A stream can be fashioned from cellophane or blue fabric and stones. You might also use a small wading pool to create a drinking pool for the sheep. Use any other room decor you might have to create a pastoral scene: leaves, branches, bushes, flowers, etc.

PARENT TIME

Busy parents often arrive at church tired and worn out from the week's activities and from getting the family ready for the "day of rest." Share a word of encouragement with them sometime during Sabbath School (possibly during Arrival Activities), something that will express your care and concern for them. The following statements were prepared by young mothers and fathers as suggestions and may be used at your discretion at any time you wish.

Week 1

It was Friday evening. I had picked up my daughter from child care and made it home to my less-than-tidy house. As I prepared dinner for my family it became mysteriously quiet. Motherly instinct told me it was time to investigate. I walked into my toddler's room to discover that she had found my craft paint supply. All over the door of her closet and the drawers of her dresser, she had painted her own little mural. I fell apart.

Yelling loudly, I scooped her up and put her into the tub under Daddy's care. Then I set to work on the bedroom. I was so angry! Scrubbing worked out some of the frustration, and, as I began to calm down, I actually began to laugh a little. Finally I decided to leave the closet door alone. In weeks to come when I looked at that closet door, I began to say thanks to God for the paint job. Many times in the next few years, a quick glance at the closet door helped to remind me that my child was more important than any piece of furniture or paint on the wall.

Share your reaction to a time when your child ruined something. Take courage, and remember that Jesus is with you in the middle of every frustration!

Week 2

"Listen to Mommy!" I yelled. "Do not pull tapes apart!" In my anger I stomped up the stairs to my bedroom to try to fix yet another cassette tape that my son had pulled apart.

Why is he doing this? I thought heatedly. I've told him so many times not to pull the tape out. I was especially irritated when I realized that this was his favorite lullaby tape. I sat down on the bed in frustration and scolded myself for yelling at my son.

Shortly, a quiet toddler voice spoke up. "I sorry, Mommy. I sorry," he said meekly.

My irritation vanished at the sincere little apology. After all, it was only a cassette tape. I scooped him up into my arms. "I forgive you, honey! Please forgive me for yelling."

When little annoyances discourage you, remember that Jesus understands. "Don't sweat the small stuff."

Share a time when the small stuff overwhelmed you. What can you do to keep the small stuff in perspective with the preciousness of family members?

Week 3

I am so thankful for my husband's help with raising our children. He is great at giving baths, reading to them, playing with them, putting them to bed, etc. I love seeing him wrestling with the boys and teaching them things they need to know to be good men. Being a stay-at-home mom, I am very grateful for his help in the evening so I can have a break. I have often thought about single parents. How do they do it all? If they don't have the luxury of family around to help, how do they get a break? I can imagine the pain they feel for their children, knowing they are missing another parent's influence. If you are a single parent, God sees the trials you are going through. He can fill all your needs. He promises to be "a father to the fatherless" (Psalm 68:5, NIV).

Single parents: What do you want God to do for your children that you cannot do? Other parents: How can you be supportive of single parents?

Week 4

When my second child was born, Wesley was 3 years old. Everything went well at first, but after a month or so Wesley was not too pleased with the new baby. My parents had come to visit and help out. I appreciated their efforts, but it was stressful in that Wesley and my dad were having conflicts. I thought my dad was expecting too much from Wesley. Wesley was being belligerent and disobedient. I was taking Wesley's side and having conflicts with my dad in front of Wesley. I didn't like Wesley's talking back to my dad, but I sure did it!

I prayed about it, and God showed me that I was being a very poor example to my child. I was not respecting and honoring my parents as I should have. When I stopped confronting my dad in front of Wesley and began to be more kind and polite to my parents, Wesley began to change. What a lesson I learned!

Have you ever noticed how your attitude toward something influences your child's attitude? How can you better teach your child to honor and respect others?

Week 5 (or optional)

We were working outside together. The baby was in a walker, the toddler was digging in the dirt, and my wife and I were making a brick edging for her flower garden. After a while I noticed that Michael was watching us intently. "Daddy, you and Mommy are a good team!" he said. We laughed together and gave each other a kiss. "Yes, Michael.

Mommy and I are a good team!" "How good and how pleasant it is . . . to dwell together in unity!" (Psalm 133:1).

Share ways in which parents can be "a good team" in their homes.

ARRIVAL ACTIVITIES

Plan simple play activities on a blanket, sheet, or quilt for children who arrive early. The children participate in these activities under the supervision of an adult until the program begins. The materials should relate to the program, which is based on the monthly Bible story.

Choose from the following suggested activities for this month. Be sure to include something for the span of children's ages.

A. Book Basket

Provide a basket of sturdy board books about sheep, shepherds, caring for animals, pets, children being kind, etc.

B. Animal Corner

Provide toy stuffed animals (some that make noises) and soft sculptured objects for children to hold.

C. Peekaboo Basket

This basket includes a hand towel and play objects (a block, ball, rattle, or toy stuffed animal including toy sheep, if possible). Parents hide an object under the towel. The children will enjoy playing peekaboo to find something that God has made, as the parent says this rhyme:

Peekaboo!

Let's see who

Finds a [name of object]

God made for you. (Child picks up the object.)

(Name) did! (Hug child. Affirm child.)

D. Basket of Sheep

Have a basket with toy sheep or pictures of sheep. Help the children count the sheep by taking them out of the basket and putting them back into the basket. Encourage the children to make sheep sounds.

E. Puzzles

Cut out pictures of sheep from magazines. Mount these on foam core or cardboard and laminate. Then cut the pictures in half and place them on a table or quilt. Older toddlers will enjoy matching the two halves of the pictures.

F. Rocking Chair

Have an adult-size rocking chair available for parents to hold and rock children who are too tired or shy to join in the activities.

He will get it all.
Dropping, dropping,
dropping, dropping;
Hear the money fall!
Ev'ry piece for Jesus,
He will get it all.

Say: The Bible also tells us that God gave us our families. We want to obey our mommies and daddies. We want to be loving to everyone in our families. Baby sheep are called lambs. Jesus made lambs feel soft and woolly. I'm sure David petted the little lambs. You can come up front and touch this soft, woolly lamb. Sing "Woolly, Woolly Lamb" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 171).

Daniel and the Lions

WORSHIP

We worship the Creator.

References

Daniel 6:1-23; Prophets and Kings, pp. 539-548.

Memory Verse

"[Daniel] went to his room three times a day to pray" (Daniel 6:10, NIV).

Objectives

The children will:

Know that God wants them to talk to Him.

Feel confident that God listens to their prayers.

Respond by praying every day.

The Message

I can talk to Jesus every day.

Getting Ready to Teach

The Bible Lesson at a Glance

Darius, the king, commands that people may not worship anyone except himself. Anyone who does will be thrown into a den of lions. But Daniel continues to pray to God three times a day. Daniel is thrown into the lions' den. But the lions don't hurt him because God protects him.

This is a lesson about worship.

Daniel knew how necessary it was to talk to God each day. It was so important to him that he wasn't willing to sacrifice this time with God even if it meant certain death. Talking with God was not only one way to worship God, but it was also a lifeline for him. Daily communication with the Father not only enables us to share our troubles with God, but it also allows God to speak wisdom, instruction, and comfort to our minds.

Teacher Enrichment

"With calmness [Daniel] performed his duties as chief of the princes; and at the hour of prayer he went to his chamber, and with his windows open toward Jerusalem, in accordance with his usual custom, he offered his petition to the God of heaven. . . . Thus the prophet boldly yet quietly and humbly declared that no earthly power has a right to interpose between the soul and God. Surrounded by idolaters, he was a faithful witness to this truth" (Prophets and Kings, pp. 541, 542).

TWO

"For an entire day the princes watched Daniel. Three times they saw him go to his chamber, and three times they heard his voice lifted in earnest intercession to God" (Prophets and Kings, p. 542).

"Daniel's house probably had a flat roof, like the majority of both ancient and modern houses in Mesopotamia. Usually on one corner there is an apartment raised above the flat roof that contains latticed windows for ventilation" (The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, vol. 4, p. 812).

PARENT TIME

Busy parents often arrive at church tired and worn out from the week's activities and from getting the family ready for the "day of rest." Share a word of encouragement with them sometime during Sabbath School (possibly during Arrival Activities), something that will express your care and concern for them. The following statements were prepared by young mothers and fathers as suggestions and may be used at your discretion at any time you wish.

Week 1

Reflect on this quotation for a moment. Then share your thoughts on it. "The power of a mother's prayers cannot be too highly estimated. She who kneels beside her son and daughter through the vicissitudes of childhood, through the perils of youth, will never know till the judgment the influence of her prayers upon the life of her children" (The Adventist Home, p. 266).

Week 2

A little Russian girl was in Sabbath School one morning. In talking about what God has done, the children said that they were thankful for flowers, clothes, shoes, etc. The Sabbath School leader asked who would like to pray, and the 4-year-old volunteered. "Dear God," she prayed, "please take good care of Yourself. If anything happens to You, what are we going to do?"

Aren't you glad that we never have to worry about that? Share a sweet little prayer your child may have prayed. How did their faith affect you?

Week 3

"Mama, can we have a sandbox?"

Three-year-old David had just been playing at his friend's house, and the favorite activity was digging in the sandbox.

"I'm sorry, honey, but we can't have a sandbox in an apartment," I explained. "You need a yard for that."

Not to be discouraged, he said, "Then I'll ask Jesus for a yard!" How I wished that we could have a yard, but there were simply no houses in our area within our price range.

That night we read stories and had prayer. I started to turn off the light, and David said, "Mama, we forgot to pray for a yard!" So out of bed he hopped. "Dear Jesus, please send us a yard so we can have a sandbox. Amen!"

We tucked him in, and I went to answer the ringing telephone. It was a person I occasionally worked for, checking on a project. Then to my utter amazement he asked, "Say, do you know of anyone who'd like to rent a house?" It was just right for us, within our budget, and with a perfect place for a sandbox! Never take for granted the faith of your child!

As parents, how can we encourage childlike faith when logic defies it?

Week 4

I've prayed this same prayer for years now. It is taped to the inside of my medicine cabinet, so I see it every morning and every evening: "Lord, teach me to do my best. Teach me how to do better work. Give me energy and cheerfulness" (Child Guidance, p. 148).

I want to do my very best in raising my children. I worry that I'm not disciplining them enough, being too protective, not being protective enough, and on and on. If only I had those two things, energy and cheerfulness, I could get lots done at home and play with my kids without falling asleep on the floor while playing with toy cars and trucks. I would be cheerful all the time!

What are the prayers that you've prayed again and again? How has God answered them?

Week 5 (or optional)

One night at our worship my almost 3-year-old prayed such a sweet prayer: "Dear Jesus, I love You, Jesus! Thank You for Mama and Daddy and my baby brother. You come over to my house a-morrow, OK, Jesus?"

My heart was touched that my precious son considered Jesus his friend and wanted Him to come over tomorrow. I thought about that a lot. "Yes, Jesus, You come on over, OK?"

Share your thoughts on Jesus's coming over to your house. Share a time when your child's prayer brought you closer to Jesus.

Any Week (optional)

"Let mothers come to Jesus with their perplexities. They will find grace sufficient to aid them in the management of their children. The gates are open for every mother who would lay her burdens at the Saviour's feet. He who said, 'Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not,' still invites the mothers to lead up their little ones to be blessed by Him. Even the babe in its mother's arms may dwell as under the shadow of the Almighty through the faith of the praying mother. John the Baptist was filled with the Holy Spirit from his birth. If we will live in communion with God, we too may expect the divine Spirit to mold our little ones, even from their earliest moments" (The Desire of Ages, p. 512).

What does “live in communion with God” mean to you personally? How can we encourage one another to live in communion with God?

ARRIVAL ACTIVITIES

Plan simple play activities for the early children on the carpet or on a blanket, sheet, or quilt inside the semicircle. The children participate in these activities under the supervision of an adult until the program begins. The child’s play should be with materials that relate to the program, which is based on the monthly Bible story.

Choose the following suggested activities for this month. Be sure to include something for the span of children’s ages.

A. Book Basket

Provide a basket of sturdy board books about animals.

B. Animal Corner

Provide toy stuffed animals (including lions and some that make noises) and soft sculptured objects for children to hold.

C. Peekaboo Basket

Make available a basket that includes a hand towel and play objects (a block, ball, rattle, stuffed animal, etc.). Parents hide an object under the towel. The children will enjoy playing peekaboo to find something that God has made as the parent says this rhyme:

Peekaboo!
Let’s see who
Finds a (name of object)

God made for you. (Child picks up the object.)

(Name) did! (Hug child. Affirm child.)

D. Zoo Corner

Provide blocks or other “building” play sets for children to build a zoo and play with the (toy) animals that God made.

E. Rocking Chair

Provide an adult-size rocking chair so children who are too tired or shy to join in the activities can be rocked by a parent.

F. Puzzles

Cut out pictures of lions from magazines, mount them on foam core or cardboard and laminate them. Cut the pictures in half, and place them on a table or quilt so children can match the two halves of the pictures.

G. Basket of Lions

Have a basket full of toy stuffed, plastic, felt, paper, etc., lions. Encourage the children to count the lions while taking them out of the basket and putting them back in.

H. Lion Kids

Encourage children and parents to get on hands and knees and pretend to be lions. If possible, play a recording of a lion’s roar.

Prophets and
Kings, pp. 539-

Memory Verse

"[Daniel] went to his room three times a day to pray" (Daniel 6:10, NIV).

The Message

I can talk to Jesus every day.

See the lions. Lions are big cats. Happy lions say, "Purr!" Sleeping lions say, "Snore!" (Snore.) But angry lions say, "Grrrr, roar!" (Roar, and hug your child.)

See Daniel. (Point to Daniel.) Daniel is a brave man. Daniel is God's friend. Daniel is the king's friend, too.

See Daniel's house. (Point to Daniel's house.) See Daniel's window. (Point to the window.) Daniel prays there three times every day

Daniel is a brave man. Daniel is God's friend.

Every morning Daniel talks to God. Daniel prays. Daniel says, "I love You, God."

Some bad men want to hurt Daniel. They ask the king to make a new law. The law will say that people who pray to God will be thrown to the lions.

At noon Daniel kneels by the window. Daniel talks to God. Daniel prays.

At night Daniel kneels by his bed. Daniel talks to God. Daniel prays.

Daniel is not afraid to pray. He prays one, two, three times a day. (Count on your child's fingers.)

Some bad men see Daniel pray. "We will tell the king," they say. "The king will have to put Daniel in the lions' den."

"Daniel prays to God in heaven three times a day," the bad men say. "He must be put in the lions' den."

"Daniel is my friend," says the king. "I do not want to hurt him. But I must do what the law says. Daniel's God will take care of him."

The bad men take Daniel to the lions' den. Grrrr! Roar! (Roar.) The lions are hungry. Grrr! Roar! (Roar.)

Daniel is not afraid. His angel is there. The angel will shut the lions' mouths. (Show your closed mouth trying to roar.)

Get up, Daniel. It is morning. Time to pray. (Kneel.)

Daniel prays to God. (Clasp hands; close eyes.) "Dear

God, thank You for sending Your angel. Thank You for taking good care of me. I love You, God. Amen."

The good king calls, "Daniel, did your God take care of you? Did the lions hurt you?"

(To child.) Did the lions hurt Daniel? No! (Shake head.) The lions did not hurt Daniel.

"O King! My God sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths. God saved me!"

God sends His angels to watch over us, too. Let's thank Him for angels. (Pray a simple prayer.)

Joseph's New Coat

GRACE

Grace is the gift of life.

References

Genesis 30:22-24; 37:1-3; Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 209.

Memory Verse

"[Jesus] cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7, NIV).

Objectives

The children will:

Know that God cares for them.

Feel secure because God loves them.

Respond by thanking Jesus and God for gifts of love and care.

The Message

God loves and cares for me.

Getting Ready to Teach

The Bible Lesson at a Glance

Jacob loves his son Joseph because Joseph is pure of heart and mind, and brings great joy to him in his old age. Jacob wants to do something special for Joseph, so he gives him a gift of a beautiful coat.

This is a lesson about grace.

Just as Jacob bestowed his love on Joseph by caring for and loving him, God shows us His love for us by taking care of us and loving us. Jesus gives us good gifts. Jesus showed His love with the ultimate sacrifice of His life.

Teacher Enrichment

"There was one, however, of a widely different character—the elder son of Rachel, Joseph, whose rare personal beauty seemed but to reflect an inward beauty of mind and heart. Pure, active, and joyous, the lad gave evidence also of moral earnestness and firmness. He listened to his father's instructions, and loved to obey God" (Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 209).

". . . Joseph's coat, or tunic, would be one with long sleeves, and one which also reached to his feet. Such a garment would not be suitable to wear while working, and was, furthermore, the kind worn by children of noble rank" (The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, vol. 1, p. 429).

"We are sustained every moment by God's care, and upheld by His power. He spreads our tables with food. He gives us peaceful and refreshing sleep. Weekly He brings to us the Sabbath, that we may rest from our temporal labors, and worship Him in His own house. He has given us His word to be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. . . . He grants us the blessings of His grace. Above all else is the infinite gift of God's dear Son, through whom flow all other blessings for this life and for the life to come" (Counsels on Stewardship, p. 18).

Room Organization

This program is designed for a traditional beginner setting. Activities may be done on the floor in the center of the circle, or on tables, or on mats placed around the edge.

Room Decorations

PARENT TIME

Busy parents often arrive at church tired and worn out from the week's activities and from getting the family ready for the "day of rest." Share a word of encouragement with them sometime during Sabbath School (possibly during Arrival Activities), something that will express your care and concern for them. The following statements were prepared by young mothers and fathers as suggestions, and may be used at your discretion at any time you wish.

Week 1

After nursing my second born in the dressing room, I laid my fussing infant son down in the stroller and began to change his diaper. We were shopping with Grandma who had come to stay with us at his birth. Our 3-year-old decided that he had been in a store long enough and began to run here and there. Suddenly, I felt a warm, warm wetness on my foot. Over the edge of the stroller came a little stream from my diaperless baby boy. It trickled down to my foot and the floor. Why did I even leave the house? I thought.

You've probably had a day or two when you wondered why you went out! We've all had them! Jesus promises us, "I am with you always" (Matthew 28:20, NIV). I guess that means even on those days when I should have stayed at home.

Share a time when you went out and were sorry you did. In what way can Jesus' words, "I am with you always" encourage you?

Week 2

The ocean breeze cooled my face. I couldn't wait to take our 15-month-old son to the beach. Here we were! He loved the sand, but the waves were just too big and scary. We tried and tried to encourage him to go into the water, to no avail.

The day passed. Shortly before time to leave, we went down to the water one more time. This time, his bravery had increased. He reached up for my hand, and for Mommy's hand. Holding confidently to both of us, he charged into the waves. Later I reflected on the day. "Lord," I prayed, "help him learn to hold on tightly to You!"

Share ways you can teach your children to hold tightly to God.

Week 3

It was pitch black in the depths of Mammoth Cave—blackier than any night. We were at the part of the tour where the guide turns off the lights to give the visitors a chance to experience blackness, so black you can't see your hand in front of your face. Our youngest son grabbed his Daddy's leg and whispered, "Daddy, does Jesus know we are down here?"

He always knows. No matter how dark the night, how desperate the circumstance, or how far away the light may seem, He knows and has promised not to abandon us. "I am with you always" (Matthew 28:20, NIV).

Share a time when you felt it was your darkest hour. How did Jesus see you through?

Week 4

We were visiting my parents when my 17-month-old son was bitten by fire ants. We took him to the urgent care center where they said to open each one of the swollen bites and put medication on it.

The very next day he was playing with his cousin when he jumped off the bed and dislocated his shoulder. So off we went to the urgent care center again. They questioned me about the ugly welts, though I had been there just the day before. My son's shoulder was put back in place and we went home.

The next day, he ran out the door and onto the wet pavement where Grandpa was washing the car. Unbelievably, he slipped and fell, landing in such a way as to break his leg. I did not want to go back to the same place I had been just the two previous days, but it was the closest place, and he was in such pain, so we went.

After seeing this child three times in three days, the people at the urgent care center reported me to the child protection services, who came and would not let me be with my little boy. I was beside myself! Eventually everything did work out, and after a few hours I was reunited with him. We made it through that awful time, but I'll never forget the helpless feelings I experienced.

Share a time when you felt utterly helpless in regard to your child. How is God a help when those times come?

Week 5 (or optional)

When my youngest daughter was only 3 years old, we visited Grandma a lot. Grandma had a big garden where rows and rows of tall corn grew. One warm day in late summer, Grandma asked me to pick some corn for our next meal. I took my little girl by the hand and we went to the garden. Once there, I dropped her hand and became engrossed in picking corn. Soon I heard a tearful voice. "Momma! Momma! Where are you? I can't see you!"

Quickly I responded. I peeked between the rows of corn and there she was, looking all around. "I can see you!" I smiled. "I'm right here!"

She ran to me and took my hand and together we carried the corn to the house.

"I wasn't really lost, was I Momma?" she asked.

"No, sweetie, I was watching over you all the time. And so was Jesus. He is always watching over you too."

Tell about a time when you knew that God was watching over your child.

ARRIVAL ACTIVITIES

Plan simple play activities for the early children on the carpet or on a blanket, sheet, or quilt inside the semicircle. The children participate in these activities under the supervision of an adult until the program begins. The child's play should be with materials that relate to the program, which is based on the monthly Bible story.

Choose from the following suggested activities for this month. Be sure to include something for the span of children's ages.

A. Book Basket

Provide a basket of sturdy board books about animals, food, new clothes, families, or colors.

B. Food Basket

Provide a basket of artificial food items such as fruits and vegetables, or canned food items with the pictures on them. Provide shopping bags and allow the children to "shop" for food.

C. Dress-up Corner

Provide a variety of dress-up clothes and/or coats for the children to try on. Try to include at least one colorful coat or other outer garment. Talk about what Joseph's coat looked like.

D. Textures

Provide a basket of fabric of different textures such as rough, soft, woolly, fuzzy, silky. Encourage the children to touch and talk about how it feels. What do you think Joseph's coat felt like?

E. Colors

Place several boxes filled with colored objects (all of the same colors in one box—such as red apple, red firetruck, red heart, red bird, etc.) for the children to take out and tell what they are. Talk about how Joseph's coat was made of many colors.

F. Gathering Food

Place a variety of artificial food items around the room and encourage the children to gather them and place them in a basket. Talk about how God gives us food.

G. Basket of Sheep

Provide a basket with toy sheep or pictures of sheep. Help the children count the sheep by taking them out of the basket and putting them back into the basket.

H. Rocking Chair

Provide an adult-sized rocking chair where parents can sit and rock the children who may be too shy or sleepy to join in the activities.

MAKE AND TAKE (Optional)Week 1Paper Bag CoatYou Need:

- ☐ large-size paper grocery bags
- ☐ scissors
- ☐ strips of colored construction paper
- ☐ glue

Give each parent a paper bag and show them how to cut it into a vest. Provide 3-inch (7.5-cm) strips of construction paper in several bright colors. Allow the children to glue colored strips to their “coats.” If you wish, you may keep these at church and use them for Activity F in Experiencing the Story during the rest of the month, then send them home with the children when you begin the next lesson.

Week 2Sheep PuppetYou Need:

- ☐ lunch-size paper bags
- ☐ reproducible sheep pattern (see p. 75)
- ☐ scissors
- ☐ glue

Give each parent a copy of the sheep pattern (see page 75) to cut out. Glue the face of the sheep to the bottom of the bag, and the body of the sheep to the side of the bag, creating a puppet. While doing this craft, remind the children that Joseph’s coat was made of sheep wool.

Week 3Gifts From GodYou Need:

- ☐ reproducible gift box pattern (see p. 76)
- ☐ scissors
- ☐ glue sticks
- ☐ crayons

Give each parent a copy of the gift box pattern (see page 76). Have them cut out both boxes. Glue the box with pictures on the back of the gift box by putting only a narrow strip of glue on the top edge so that the top paper can lift up to reveal the picture of God’s gifts. Crease the top paper along the glue line to make it easier to lift. Color the gift box and picture. Remind the children that God gives us many gifts. Name them in the picture and help your child think of more.

Week 4Joseph and His BrothersYou Need:

- ☐ craft sticks or tongue-depressors
- ☐ crayons
- ☐ large Styrofoam cups or bowls

Give each child 11 craft sticks. Parents can help them make a simple face (eyes and mouth) on the top of each stick. They are to represent Joseph and his 10 big brothers. Then help the children turn the cup or bowl over and push the sticks through the Styrofoam cup or bowl so that the stick person is standing up. Count how many brothers were in Joseph’s family.

Week 5 (or optional activity)

Joseph's Colorful Coat

You Need:

- ☐ coat pattern (see p. 77)
- ☐ paper
- ☐ colorful striped cloth
- ☐ glue
- ☐ scissors

Distribute the coat patterns (see p. 77) and a piece of cloth (pre-cut to fit over the shape of the coat pattern, or have the parents cut it to fit). Have the children help put glue on the paper pattern, then glue the cloth coat shape to it.

Snack Center (Optional)

Invite the children to come and taste some colorful sliced fruit and/or crackers. Provide napkins and small cups of water.

Bible Activities

If there is still time, families may choose from a variety of activities that reinforce this month's Bible story. Those activities listed as Arrival Activities may be used again. In addition, you may want to provide a snack at one table.

Closing

Say: God is so good to us. He loves us so much. Let's kneel while we close Sabbath School by singing a thank-You song to God. Sing the following words to "God Is So Good" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 88).

God cares for me,
God cares for me,
God cares for me,
He's so good to me.

—African Christian Folk Song.
Adapted.

Say: Now let's sing our memory verse song one more time. Use the hand motions as you sing "Jesus Cares for You" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 92).

Jesus	Point upward.
cares	Cross arms over chest.
for you,	Point to others.
Jesus	Point upward.
cares	Cross arms over chest.
for you.	Point to others.
He	Point upward.
cares	Cross arms over chest.
for you.	Point to others.

As the children prepare to leave the classroom, sing "Goodbye to You" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 45).

See Joseph walk. Joseph is growing big. His daddy loves him. His mommy loves him. God loves him. God watches over him everywhere he goes.

Who loves you? (Hug child; twirl around.) I do! You are special to our family. (Repeat hugs.)

See Joseph. He is a big, big boy now. God goes with Joseph everywhere he goes.

See Jacob work. See the servants help. They make wool yarn. Pretty wool yarn for Joseph's gift. Joseph helps the servant make pretty wool yarn. Yarn in bright colors. (Show colorful yarn.)

See the pretty wool. (Point to colorful wool.) Comb the pretty wool. (Pretend to comb with open fingers.) Make a coat for Joseph. Spin some wool yarn. (Rub hands together.) Weave the wool threads. (Weave right index finger over and under fingers of left hand.) Make a coat for Joseph.

"Thank you, thank you, Father," says Joseph. "I like my new coat."

"Joseph is not a king," his big brothers say. "The coat is too good for Joseph!" But God is with Joseph.

Hop, Joseph! Hop and twirl! Hop in the new coat. A coat fit for a king. A gift of love for Joseph.

(To child.) What do you have that is special? (Hop and twirl for a gift the child names.) Thank you, Jesus, for special gifts. Go with us everywhere we go today.
